

UNIVERSITY OF SAINT FRANCIS PHILOSOPHY/THEOLOGY

FALL LECTURE SERIES

Dr. Adam DeVille

SEPTEMBER 13 @ 7 P.M.

"Fake News and the Fathers of Suspicion: Learning from Freud, Marx, and Evagrius"

This lecture will ask how and why Christians should engage Marx and Freud, and what they, together with the first monastic "psychologist," Evagrius of Pontus, have to teach us about the desire to deceive and be deceived.

Dr. Earl Kumfer

NOVEMBER 12 @ 3 P.M.

"Miracles and Belief"

Why believe? Do arguments, testimony or experience ground belief? Do miracles prove anything? This lecture will revisit the Resurrection narratives in light of Hume and Pascal to better grasp what happens at Pentecost.

Sr. Jacinta Krecek

OCTOBER 11 @ 7 P.M.

"The Message of Fatima: Then and Now"

Saint John Paul II said, "Fatima is more relevant now than ever." With this year marking 100 years since Our Lady of Fatima delivered her message, what is so significant about it for us to take to heart today?

Sr. Felicity Dorsett

DECEMBER 10 @ 3 P.M.

"Incarnate Wisdom Scripture"

Christmas focuses on Christ becoming incarnate, that is a human being. This talk will explore the theme of incarnation in the prologue to John's gospel set in the overall context of Wisdom in the Bible.

For additional information, contact Angie Springer at 260-399-7700 ext. 8100 or aspringer@sf.edu or visit our website at philosophy.sf.edu/lecture-series.

Sponsors: Department of Philosophy and Theology and the USF School of Liberal Arts and Sciences